

tickets can be booked online at www.lff.org.uk or by calling 020 7928 3232. Cinemas screening festival films include the NFT and Odeon West End, where a full programme booklet can be collected.

Joining

An Audience With John Humphrys on Tuesday at The Corn Exchange

in Newbury, Berkshire. The formidable veteran broadcaster will be answering questions on his distinguished career as a BBC foreign correspondent, the presenter of Radio 4's Today programme and Mastermind's interrogator for the past two years. For tickets, call 01635 522733.

Exploring the evidence for extra-terrestrial life in fascinating new exhibition The Science Of Aliens, opening today. In association with the Channel 4 documentary Alien Worlds, London's Science Museum will be divided into four zones for visitors to learn how alien life forms may indeed exist and how scientists are working to find them. The display will also feature favourite sci-fi figures and strange species currently alive on Earth. Call 0870 906 3890 to book, or visit www.sciencemuseum.org.uk.

Aliens have invaded the Science Museum

Listening to Dannii Minogue's latest single, Perfection, which is released through All Around The World Records this Monday. The singer will be signing copies at the G.A.Y bar, in London's Old Compton Street on Tuesday night, and will perform at the G.A.Y club night at the Astoria, WC2 next Saturday. See www.danniimusic.com.

Dannii Minogue's new single is released on Monday