Look out for these objects and their stories around the museum.

- Amy Johnson
  - De Havilland Gipsy Moth Aeroplane
  - 1928

- William Cooke and Charles Wheatstone
  - Large 5-Needle Telegraph
  - 1837

- James Lovelock
  - Electron Capture Detector
  - 1955-65

- Dorothy Hodgkin
  - Model of Pig Insulin
  - 1967

- Alan Turing
  - Automatic Computing Engine
  - 1949

- Alexander Fleming
  - Sample of Penicillium Mould
  - 1935

- Russell Reynolds
  - X-Ray Installation
  - 1896-97
LEVEL 3

- Engineer Your Future
- Flight
  - Fly 360
  - Fly Kids
  - Red Arrows 3D
  - Typhoon Force
- Picnic area

LEVEL 2

- Academy
  - The Art of Innovation: From Enlightenment to Dark Matter
    - Closes 26 Jan 2020
- Atmosphere
  - The Clockmakers’ Museum
  - Information Age
  - Mathematics
    - The Winton Gallery
  - Science City 1550–1800
    - The Lindbury Gallery
  - Science Photographer of the Year
    - Closes 5 Jan 2020

LEVEL 1

- Medicine Galleries:
  - The Welcome Galleries
    - Opens Nov 2019
  - Who Am I?

LEVEL 0

- Energy Hall
  - Exploring Space
  - Hans Rausing Lecture Theatre
  - IMAX Theatre
    - Pre-booking required
    - Closes Feb 2020
  - James Watt and Our World
    - Legend of Apollo
      - Pre-booking required
      - Closes Apr 2020
  - Making the Modern World
  - Pattern Pod
    - Pre-booking required
  - Shop
  - Level 0 and Mezzanine
  - Tomorrow’s World
    - Driverless: Who is in Control?

LEVEL -1

- Basement Studio
- Buggy parking
- The Garden
  - Pre-booking required
- Picnic area
  - The Secret Life of the Home
  - Top Secret
    - Pre-booking required
    - Closes 23 Feb 2020